

ESTATE VALUED AT $250,000 LEFT BY MISS DAINGERFIELD

Churches and Charity Get Generous Bequests of Money.

Provisions for the distribution of an estate worth $250,000 are made in the will of Miss Ellen C. Daingerfield, dated June 16, 1908, the bulk of the estate going to members of the family, although charity and churches get a generous share.

Children of the brother of the testatrix, Henry Daingerfield, are left cash bequests in addition to other remembrances. Henry, Philip and Lorenzo Daingerfield, $15,000 each; Kathleen Sewall Daingerfield, $20,000. Mrs. Virginia Key Daingerfield, widow of the brother, is left $3,000 and all the household furniture at "Poplar Hill," Prince George's county, Md.

Children of Rev. J. Daingerfield, another brother, are left these cash bequests: Sara C. Carter, $15,000; Charlotte R. Dillingham and Rev. J. Daingerfield, $10,000 each.

One thousand dollars each is left to the Little Sisters of the Poor, St. Alcyon's Church, of this city, and St. Mary's Church, of Upper Marlboro, while the House of the Good Shepherd is given $5,000 and St. Joseph's Church, of Baltimore, $2,000.

Attorney Richard C. Thompson, of Washington, who is named executor, is given $5,000, it being stated that he managed her estate for several years.

Ada Lacey, a colored servant, was made the beneficiary of $2,000. The estate known as "Poplar Hill" is left to the children of Henry Daingerfield.

Rites for Mrs. Smythe To Be Held Thursday

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth A. Smythe, who died soon after being taken to Emergency Hospital yesterday as the result of an acute attack of abdominal trouble, will be held at her home, 127 Eleventh street northwest, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rabbi Louis Stern will officiate at the ceremonies.

Mrs. Smythe, who was a widow, was fifty-three years old and the daughter of Capt. Sherrie Levy, U. S. A., and granddaughter of Rabbi Morris Rappaport, of New York city.

Lieut. Kennedy Hurt Internally by Fall

Internal injuries were received by Lieut. Frank M. Kennedy, one of the Curtiss fliers of the army aviation school, at Augusta, Ga., when his machine turned turtle and he fell 100 feet yesterday afternoon.

A telegram from Capt. Charles DeForest Chandler, commanding officer of the school, to the Signal Corps of the War Department, this morning states that Lieut. Kennedy received no broken bones, and that his internal injuries are not very serious. The injured aviator was taken to the city hospital in Augusta.

Life Tenure for Judges.

Senator Johnston has introduced a bill in the Senate which provides life tenure for the judges of the Police Court. If passed, the bill would give Police Court Judges Pugh and Mulhoney their jobs for life.

MILITIAMEN AWAIT NEWS OF MANEUVERS

District National Guard Is Expected to Camp at Mt. Gretna or Gettysburg, Pa., Some Time Next August—Regular Army to Participate in Tests.

Officers of the District National Guard expect to receive word in a few days from Gen. Frederick Dent Grant, commanding the department of the East, regarding the participation of the District militia in the joint army maneuvers this summer. The District regiments undoubtedly will be ordered to take part in maneuvers to be held either at Mt. Gretna or Gettysburg in August.

While the exact place and date are as yet undetermined, the guardsmen have learned from the War Department about the general nature of the maneuvers this year. They will continue eight days, it is announced, and are designed as camps of instruction rather than tests of endurance.

District guardsmen were among the last to report to the War Department regarding the number of troops available for this year's maneuvers.

The general staff of the army has worked out a plan of having two contending armies for each set of maneuvers, each army to be composed of a re-enforced brigade of both regulars and militiamen. The red army will act as defenders in each case. On the sea coast the blue army will represent a foreign force.

It is the intention of the general staff to make the maneuvers a problem in larger tactics, operating the forces over as large an area as possible. The House appropriation bill contained an item of $50,000 to be used in transporting regulars to the several maneuver camps, and the comparative smallness of the sum limits the number of regulars for each army.

MINISTER HERE TO AID IN SEARCH FOR HIS MISSING WIFE

Police Have Been Unable to Trace Woman Who Mysteriously Disappeared.

The Rev. Walton H. Grever, of Columbia, S. C., is in Washington today, aiding in the search for his wife, who has been strangely missing since last Saturday afternoon, when she disappeared while in a crowd of shoppers in F street.

The Rev. Mr. Grever arrived in Washington last night, accompanied by Mr. Arthur H. Kohn, of Columbia, a friend of the family. Edgar L. Grever, a brother of the clergyman, and Theodore Ruegel, of Philadelphia, a brother of the missing woman, are also in the city.

Efforts on the part of the police so far to get any trace of Mrs. Grever's whereabouts have failed, and her husband has become apprehensive for her safety. Mrs. Grever has been in Washington for several months under the care of a physician for nervous depression and melancholia.

She had been staying at the home of Miss Louis Ryan, a trained nurse, at 1201 Corcoran street, northwest. Miss Ryan was with Mrs. Grever Saturday afternoon, when the latter suddenly disappeared in a crowd in front of a department store.

Mrs. Grever is the mother of three young children, who are staying temporarily with relatives in Taswell, Va. She is forty-five years old. The Rev. Mr. Grever is the editor of the United Synod, a Lutheran publication.

WOMAN IS KILLED TWO MEN HURT IN AUTOMOBILE WRECK

Fast Moving Motor Crashes Into Trolley With Fatal Result.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—One woman was killed and two men were slightly injured when a large touring car and a trolley car collided early today at the intersection of Twenty-second and Race streets. The automobile was demolished.

The dead woman is Mrs. Ida Pichard, wife of William Pichard, the driver of the machine. Those injured are A. R. Chesser, a brother of the dead woman, and Holmer Waitman, motorman of the car.

As the fast moving machine and trolley car arrived at the intersection they collided with terrific force. Mrs. Pichard, who sat on the front seat with her husband, was hurled to the street with great force. The husband and the crew of the trolley car were placed under arrest.

The Perfect Shortening

Cottolene is made from the finest vegetable oil as pure and wholesome as olive oil. Lard, on the contrary, is made from the fat of the hog—sometimes impure, often indigestible. Cottolene makes things taste better, makes them digest better. It gives you butter results at less than the price of lard. There is no indigestion sold with Cottolene. Cottolene is economical because you use one-third less.

Will the Spring Styles Suit You?

The "rush" will be here only too soon. Why not learn of the new garments now—now that we are less busy, pleased and proud to demonstrate how perfectly you can be fitted and how dainty you can look. You'll not be asked to purchase by word or look—but let's tempt you now with the telling of prices that are considerably less now than they will be later.

$10.98 Silk Dresses Well Worth $15 $10.98

Ask to see the Pin-Stripe Taffeta and Bordered Foulard Silk Dresses, showing the peplum and coat effects, with net yoke and cuffs. Others—poems in all colors and black and white effects. Sizes for adults are from 34 to 44, for girls, 14, 16, 18 and 20 years.

At $16.50 are many ideal Tailored Suits, none elaborate, but immaculate as to style and fit. Of English home-spuns and serges, in light grays and tans, are dainty suits with two-tone corded silk collar and cuffs.

Other models, of navy and black serge, have collars of macramé lace.

SUITS Man-Tailored. $16.50 Worth $25.00 up.

Still others at $16.50, of golden brown, navy and copenhagen blue serge, are severely plain, relieved with white serge trimmings and pearl buttons.

Among the dresses at $16.50 are effective one-piece models of black and white and brown and white cloths, with moire silk and crystal button trimmings.

Corsets Reduced to $1.39 and $3.29

Brassieres Reduced to Only 50c

"Broken lots" are never allowed to accumulate—thus, for tomorrow, $1.39 will buy the famous "Princess" Corsets, and $3.29 the "La Premiere" and "La Adria."

This third floor department would not be Headquarters for Corsets unless full lines of all the best Corsets and expert Corsetiers were not the rule here.

Combinations and Princess Slips 90c.

When on this third floor ask to see this lingerie. If you can be among tomorrow's morning visitors, you are assured $2.00 garments at 90c. Please note—not the full "lines" of $2 lingerie, but the many little "broken lots," bunched, creating quite a collection.

Skirts, Too, All At 25c

The question is—how sheer the materials; how good the trimmings; how perfect the fit; how superior or inferior the sewing. It's laughable, but true—that the really inferior garments are generally claimed worth the most. The merchant is like the lawyer who has a weak case—he claims all the virtues.

The Price May Be Too Little—50c

—But, Remember, the Bracelet Is Guaranteed for 5 Years

Go to the jeweler—and he'll charge you fifty cents for the patent fastening attached to this bracelet.

Bracelets like these practically as good as gold, at 50c, exemplify the saying, "truth is stranger than fiction."

This Go-Cart Reduced to $1.98

Last Year's Style! Any the Worse for That?
